

Canadian Catholic News

TELLING TRUTH IN CHARITY: SPECIAL TOPICS IN CATHOLIC JOURNALISM

Feb. 17-May 5, 2025
Mondays, 7:30 p.m.-9 p.m. ET

Four NEW Courses to Choose From!

Precision and Polish

With Paul Schratz

Learn the essentials of editing, tackling common stumbling blocks in writing news and opinion, focusing on readability, flow and strong storytelling, as we tell truth with charity and clarity.

Intensive News Writing

With Peter Stockland

Learn how to improve news writing skills while increasing writing speed and maintaining journalistic objectivity, without loss of accuracy or style. Students will produce assigned stories.

Get That Shot! Catholic Photojournalism

With Jermaine Bagnall

Learn the basics of composition, lighting and capturing meaningful moments according to the principles of truth, dignity and compassion in Catholic teaching.

Feature Writing & Social Teaching Journalism

With Laura Ieraci

Learn the art and mechanics of feature writing and long-form journalism alongside a method of reporting on social issues from the perspective of Catholic Social Teaching.

Who can register?

For journalists and aspiring journalists who completed CCN's Introduction to Catholic Journalism course (the first semester of this course) in either 2023 or 2024.

To register

Email Matthew at:

info@canadiancatholicnews.ca

Cost: $125 CAD

Register by: Feb. 12, 2025

Learn more at:

canadiancatholicnews.ca/journalism

COURSE PARTNERS:

THE CATHOLIC REGISTER

THE B.C. CATHOLIC

Catholic Conscience
The Voice of the heart.

The Religion & Journalism
Project